Youth Activist Daoud Ghoul Rearrested One Week Following Release

05 December 2016

Israeli Forces rearrested youth activist Daoud Ghoul one week following his release. Occupation forces raided the house of Mr. Ghoul at 4:00 am and rearrested him after confiscating his personal belongings. Palestinian youth organizer, was released from the Israeli Gilboa prison on Sunday, 27 November after over 17 months of imprisonment. Ghoul, 33, the director of youth programs for the Health Work Committees and the Kanaan Network of Palestinian civil society organizations, has been subject to a series of repressive attacks since 2014.

Mr. Al Ghoul is currently held in Al-Maskobyeh interrogation center in Jerusalem.
