Since the initiation of their collective boycott on 1 January 2022 under the campaign 'Our Decision is Freedom...No to Administrative Detention,' all 530 Palestinian administrative detainees have completed 101 days of their mass, collective, and comprehensive boycott against Israeli military courts. Despite the boycott, during confirmation hearings, Israeli military judges often state that they "acknowledge that the administrative detainee refuses to be presented in a military court; however, we cannot ignore the possible threat he imposes on the security of the region."

Alongside their boycott, Palestinian administrative detainees have taken additional escalatory steps to protest their arbitrary administrative detention from inside prisons. On 1 March 2022, sick Palestinian administrative detainees refused to take their medicine for one week. Later, between 6-8 March 2022, Palestinian Administrative detainees held in Meggido, Ofer, and Naqab prisons returned one of their meals on all three consecutive days in continued protest.

Art against Imprisonment: Palestinian Prisoners' Day 2022

Palestinians have commemorated April 17th since 1974 as a national tribute to prisoners and their sacrifices, a call to unify the efforts to support them and their right to freedom, and a call for solidarity with their families.

For Palestinian Prisoners' Day 2022, Art against Imprisonment is proud to host Palestinian former prisoners and artists to celebrate steadfast resistance against imprisonment, occupation, and settler colonialism.

Palestinian Prisoners of Apartheid Demand Justice

This year, in the face of mounting Israeli repression, Palestinian prisoners have stepped up the demand for their rights; they've launched a collective boycott of Israel's military courts, in protest over the widespread and illegal practice of administrative detention.

Join us to hear directly from prisoners' rights advocates in Palestine about the prisoners' struggle for justice and the wider movement for Palestinian freedom and self-determination, and to learn more about Israel's regime of arrest and detention and how we can support Palestinian political prisoners' demands for justice.
